

BREAKING CHILDHOOD CURSES

On the cross Jesus broke every curse, broke hell and death itself. When He took my sin away, He also took all my curses away at the same time and washed me clean in His blood. He then gave me His Name and the highest authority in the universe over Satan and all his curses. Now, in Jesus name I break the curse spoken over me by

_____ .

What he/she said _____

I declare this is a lie of Satan. I reject this lie and cast it out of my life in Jesus name. The blood of Jesus Christ cancelled you out on the cross. I now cancel you out in the power and authority of Jesus Name. Go! I refuse to believe your lies! Instead, I choose to believe the truth of God which says,

I will repeat this truth everyday until your lie is completely washed out of my mind and spirit forever. I will attack your lie every time I hear it and refuse to listen to your voice, in the authority of Jesus Name.
Amen!
