

FREEDOM FROM NEGATIVE CONFESSIONS

Negative confession creates major blockages to healing and deliverance in our lives. It prevents blessings of all kinds and aids enemy attacks. Jesus most repeated warning in the Bible is “O ye of little faith, why do you doubt?” is directed against this sin of negative confession.

Making a negative confession is sin. Negative confession contains lack of faith, doubt, lies, false judgements, accusations, blame and complaining; the worst sins of the flesh. They are spiritual cesspools of evil in the sight of God. Negative confession is not merely a sin of the tongue – IT IS A SIN IN THE HEART within the person.

Jesus said “out of the multitude of things that are in the heart, the mouth speaks”. The mouth releases what is stored up in the heart. A sin of negative confession is a sin in a person’s heart, not just a sin of the mouth. Jesus said “that which comes out of the mouth defiles a man” MATT 15:11 and again in verse 18. “the things which come out of the mouth come from within the heart and they defile the man”. Again, in verse 19 “for out of the heart proceed evil thoughts” How? By evil negative confessions!

Negative confession is the practice of cursing. Negative confessions curse other people, curse God and ultimately curse the one speaking it. This results in a self-curse. Every curse spoken through a mouth of negative confession returns upon the head of the one who uttered it.

Negative confessions are attacks against God. They carry the hidden suggestion that God is to blame for my situation and failures – God has failed, God has let me down, God has not come through for me. In this way I excuse myself from all responsibility, especially my greatest responsibility, which is TO HAVE FAITH IN GOD REGARDLESS OF MY SITUATION.

“I can’t do it”, “It’s too hard”, “Why doesn’t God help me?”, “I want results now”, “It’s not fair”, “I want a fast-easy way out”. All these negative confessions are sins against God.

Repentance is the only antidote to this evil. This sin can only be destroyed by renunciation from the same mouth that created it. A positive truth-based confession cancels out negative lie-based confessions because “speaking the truth in love we grow up into Him in all things” EPH 4:15. All things includes healing and all blessings.

STEP 1: Repentance confessed from a true heart is needed to replace the negative confession spoken from the evil heart.

STEP 2: Is to receive forgiveness for our sinful confessions. “If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness”. Forgiveness breaks the legal ground of enemy attacks coming through our negative words.

STEP 3: Actively turning away from this sin and practice results in the cleansing from all unrighteousness that God promised – the experience of freedom from this evil.

These 3 steps release the soul from the evil prison house of negative confession with all its self-fulfilling curses and brings our soul into the light. Light means freedom from darkness.

REMEMBER Negative confessions are attacks against God.
